This is a question we are asked fairly often. About 99% of the time when people ask us the question, the answer is no, the crypto exchange platform is not legit; on the contrary, it's fraudulent. If you're still unsure about whether a platform is legit or not, feel free to contact us. We can usually tell if it's legitimate or not within a few seconds, and are happy to provide our insight free of charge.

If you have send cryptocurrency to the 'platform' and they are not allowing you to withdraw the funds, instead insisting you pay some 'tax' or 'fee' they allege you need to pay, or if they say you first need to get you account up to a certain threshold before you can withdraw, it is undoubtedly a scam.
